Notices & Extra Info

Arrive promptly to meetings, classes, and study zone blocks.

Devoting free time to studying in addition to Study Zone hours will most likely be necessary.

Internships are 12-24 hours weekly. Days and times of internship will depend on the ministry and will be communicated to each student before the beginning of each semester.

Remain in the dorm house between 10 PM and 6 AM unless permission has been received to spend the night in another location.

Thanksgiving & Easter weeks students do not go to internships. Students will study Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday followed by a break for the holidays on Thursday and Friday.

During Encounter Servicing Weeks staff, volunteers, and Bridge students participate in professional development workshops and work alongside each other to prepare for the next ministry season. This is an opportunity to serve, develop skills, learn new things, gain experiences, and strengthen relationships. Bridge students enrolled in classes during Encounter Servicing Weeks will also be allotted time in the morning for studying. On Mondays of Encounter Servicing Weeks, all Bridge students work to increase their knowledge and fluency of the Spanish Language.
